- Diana calls meeting to order at 2:34pm
- Diana explains that we will wait for a quorum before we vote on last month's meeting minutes
- Diana asks admin for any updates regarding re-opening, academic news, etc.
- Jackie explains that CCSD has yet to review small group proposals for secondary schools, and has begun evaluation budget proposals. Additionally, a waiver has possibly been approved for federally mandated assessments.
- Diana asks for clarification of the consequences of not administering state assessments (SBAC)
- Jackie explains that, under the current circumstances, the validity of the test would certainly be stressed, and that the information gleaned from state assessments would not be as valuable as it is under more ideal circumstances.
- Diana asks Nakia for any updates about the submitted budget proposal.
- Nakia explains that there are not currently any updates or news about the recently submitted budget proposal.
- Diana asks if there is any new business to talk about.
- Andy mentions the impact that Lori Hiltz's work on the Chromebook program has had on the budget this year, saving Greenspun nearly $100,000 by trading in chromebooks for newer models.
- Diana calls for a vote on last month's minutes.
- A motion is made, seconded, and minutes from last month are approved.
- Diana asks if there are any other updates regarding vaccines for teachers.

- Jackie explains that educators have several options to obtain the vaccine, and that many teachers already have.
- Diana asks for a motion to adjourn. Motion is made, seconded, approved.
Meeting is adjourned 2:48pm
- Next meeting schedule for March 10, 2021
